

“Workshop on Google Android for Mobile Application”

Topic :	Workshop on “Google Android for Mobile Application” for the students of MCA III
Date of event :	November 21,2011
Aim of the Event :	The session was taken by Mr. Tanay Mishra. Talking about his qualifications, he is an MCA working In CMC (Computer Maintenance Corporation) Ltd. Noida and enjoys the designation of a Corporate Trainer. The session aimed at introducing to students the latest Operating System Android in mobile application development industry and also its importance for their professional growth.
Event Report in brief :	Mr. Mishra started the session talking about “Google Android for Mobile Application”. After asking some basic Java questions from the students he started discussing, explaining and relating Java with Android. Android is an operating system for mobile devices such as smart phones and tablet computers. It is developed by the Open Handset Alliance led by Google The following issues were discussed regarding Android: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What is Android?• Why android used Linux and not any other OS?• How to write, compile, run Android program?• What are Android Components?• Hardware and Software Requirements to use Android for Mobile Application Development.• Android Application Architecture.• Common structure of Android Applications.

- Features of Android.
- Advantages of using Android over other competitors.

The speaker explained all these points in detail and handled all the queries with expertise.