

Guest Lecture

Topic :	Banking and Insurance
Date of event :	21 st August, 2010
Profile of the Guest:	Mr. Abhishek Goyal, Assistant Vice President & Cluster Head, Bancassurance at Royal Bank of Scotland.
Description of the Event :	The objective of the lecture was to make the MBA students aware about the opportunities available to them in the banking and insurance industry. MBA III semester students are at the verge of taking their first step towards the corporate world; therefore, it is significant that they make an informed choice. The speaker has 10 years of wide experience in the banking and insurance field and he gave the prospective candidates an idea about what do they have in offering.
Event Report in brief:	It was a very interactive session which involved the students to deeper extent. The lecture was divided into two parts: <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) Bankingb) Insurance The first phase began with the inputs from the students side on what do they think banking is all about. The speaker surprised the students by listing various components of banking- treasury, factoring, foreign trade, loans, demat, wealth management, commodities & securities etc. He gave an overview of all these components. The second phase emphasized on the various components of insurance industry- actuary, underwriting, brokership, operations etc. The students were made aware of the opportunities available to them and finally queries were taken up by the speaker.
