Debate Competition

Topic :	Debate Competition on “Why is the present man better than his ancestors
Date of event :	18 th August, 2010
Profile of the Guest:	Lion K.P.Arora, Regional Chairperson, Lion’s Club Paschim Vihar Greater, Delhi and Lion Yashpal Arora, Master PRO, Lion’s Club Paschim Vihar Greater, Delhi
Description of the Event :	Since the middle of the last century, interscholastic debate programs have been common throughout the nation's more affluent schools and colleges. With the aim of providing our students a platform to showcase their analytical thinking we organized a Debate competition for MBA and MCA students on the theme “Why present man is better than his ancestor”.
Event Report in brief:	These programs have provided generations of more privileged students the substantial academic benefits that result from training in rhetoric, persuasion, organized communication, and argument. In debate, the preparation and delivery of argumentation provides students with the opportunity to think critically, develop their academic research skills, improve their communication abilities, solve problems creatively, and increase their self-confidence. Because students involved in debate regularly engage in writing, information analysis, and in-depth library and Internet research. Debate enables students to express their views effectively and to respond cogently to arguments with which they disagree. Inauguration of the session was done Col. (Retd.) Mahander Singh Director General by addressing one and all present and elaborating the
