

“Crossword Puzzle Competition” - A Literary Club Initiative

Topic :	“Crossword Puzzle Competition” - A Literary Club Initiative for the students of MBA I,III,MCA I,III and V.
Date of event :	August 16, 2011
Aim of the Event	Brightest minds are those which are quick in recollecting facts and figures, sharp in analysing and solving puzzles and mazes. With a firm belief and faith in this thought process, Literary Club at RDIAS organised this intellectual activity which had the struggle of freedom fighters as its backdrop.
Description of the event	It was fun time at RDIAS on the 16th day of August which saw all students scrambling for their puzzle sheets and trying to solve the puzzle with a lot of concentration. The theme of the crossword was Independence Day and it had clues such as: He was the member of the Hindustan Republican Association and was involved in the Kakori train dacoity-Ram Prasad Bismil.The crossword had twelve clues in all. Students were given time for the crossword in the midst of their academic routine. This activity proved to be much refreshing and awaited one. In this way we were also able to pay tribute to our freedom fighters and to those who were the enablers of independence. Jai Hind!!!
