“Kavi Sammelan: A Literary Club Activity”

Topic :	Kavi Sammelan-An initiative by Literary Club RDIAS
Date of event :	February 8,2011
Aim of the Event :	Literary Club, RDIAS aims at providing a platform for expression to students. As a part of this mission, Kavi Sammelan or Conclave of Poets was organized in the Lecture Theatre which brimmed and overflowed with participants, shayari, hasya kavita and et all... The idea behind this event was churning out the poet in everyone. At some stage in our life we all have written something. Creativity needs expression and expression in turn needs an audience. The presence of all these prerequisites made this event an enjoyable and relaxing experience.
Event Report in brief:	The event was graced by the presence of Director General RDIAS, Col. Mahander Singh, faculty members and students from MBA and MCA. The event was divided into two parts: Poetry for the serious minded and then poetry for those who carry with themselves a sense of humor.The participants weaved magic over the audience by using perfect verse and eloquent recital. The event was actually a blend of performing art and literature wherein the participants recited their writing with full emotion. The humor used by students was very clean and simple. At the end of the event the winners were given certificates in recognition of their efforts and inputs. Also, it is worth mentioning that this event provided a platform for interaction between students of different courses, turning it into a real Sammelan! This congregation of poets proved to be an interesting watch!
