BOOK REVIEW CONTEST

Topic :	Book Review Contest
Date of event :	October, 2010
Description of the Event :	Books have been around for centuries but for much of that time they were not available to the common person. Only the upper classes or monks and scholars were able to read. Books were very expensive and had to be copied by hand. It was not until the invention of the printing press that books became cheaper and widely available. In this day and age reading instruction is available to virtually everyone. We have only to take advantage of it. Motivated by the spirit of sharing valuable books to the world, Literary Club, RDIAS launched this book review contest. Students were encouraged to write reviews of books they thought could change the world or which were inspiring enough to make other people read it.
Event Report in brief:	In this contest the students were asked to write a review on the book of their choice, be it fiction or nonfiction. The first position was taken by Ms. Deepika Sadhu, student of MBAIII, giving in her contribution for the book "A Thousand Splendid Suns" by Khaled Hossini.
