

LIBRARY TREASURE HUNT

Topic :	“Library Treasure Hunt ”-An initiative by Literary Club RDIAS
Date of event :	28 th October, 2010
Description of the Event :	The true university these days is a collection of books! Although the library has many wonderful resources available, they can only be found by making a trip to the “bricks and mortar” we call the library. The idea behind having the treasure hunt in the library was to acquaint the students with a few resources which they might find most useful. At RDIAS we believe that the only true equalisers in the world are books; the only treasure-house open to all comers is a library; the only wealth which will not decay is knowledge; the only jewel which you can carry beyond the grave is wisdom.
Event Report in brief:	Well, it would be an understatement to say that students participated enthusiastically in this event; they were so keen that it was a challenge to tone down the number of participating teams and give a valid justification for doing the same. We had a total of six teams with five participants each. All teams were given a common list of books (there were twelve books in all) which the students had to find at the earliest. The time allotted for the same was twenty minutes. It was fun to observe that third semester students knew their library well and they had an edge over the freshers.....but then nothing can stop a book lover from knowing the library well! The winners in this hunt for books were students of MBA III Sem. They hunted and they won! Libraries are not made; they grow.....an ode to the magnificent setup of books at RDIAS.
