“Technical Paper Presentation and Viva”

Topic :	Presentations and Viva on Technical Paper written by students of MCA III Semester
Date of event :	October 07, 2011
Aim of the Event	The students at RDIAS are encouraged to write technical papers in order to enhance their reporting skills which would benefit them in future. They would learn to present their work in an organized and professional manner. In order to judge this skill of students, they were asked to write technical paper in group of at the most 3 students. The judgement regarding the same was made through presentation and viva-voce. This was done for 7 groups on the above mentioned date. A good report is easy to recognize. Its title is precise and informative, its layout and format are well organized. Reading a well written report is pleasurable, i.e. the style is accurate, fluent and concise, with headings to indicate the content of each section. The diagrams in the report contribute in showcasing the non-verbal material such as tables and graphs and they should be well presented and clearly labeled.

Description of the event:	Regarding the quality of technical paper writing, the students were judged on following parameters: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Contents of Technical Paper• Quality of Presentation• Future Scope / Usefulness• Knowledge of student• Question / Answer handling 7 groups of students had given presentations on their respective topics.
