

"Mock Interview Session -MBA III Semester (Finance Specialization)"

|---------------------------------|--|
| Topic : | Mock Interview Session for students of MBA III Semester, specializing in Finance |
| Date of event : | August 24, 2011 |
| Aim of the Event | Finance interviews are aimed at testing the conceptual knowledge of students so that they can perform well in interviews. It is a fact that there lies difference in knowing the subject and replying to questions as asked by the experts. Insight into a subject is something which comes with experience and an inclination towards learning. This session was organized keeping the aforesaid motivators in mind for successful placements and knowledge retention of students. |
| Description of the event | The interview was taken by the faculty specializing in finance. Students were asked questions in areas such as financial markets which comprises of green shoe option concept, buy back of shares etc also the questions of security analysis and investment management which consisted of questions on concept of beta and alpha. Students were evaluated on parameters like knowledge level, understanding of subject, confidence, communication skills, attitude, body language etc. It is commendable to note that the students were present in time for the interview, were dressed for the interview and were seen brushing up their notes at the last moment...not very encouraging but then an effort has started in the right direction! We are sure that this effort, if pursued persistently shall deliver the desired results in time to come. |
