Session on Presentations

Topics :	<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Future of retail sector in India➤ 'Buy or sell' which one is recommended for today's trade➤ Issue of land acquisition in Noida ➤ Role of government in Anna Hazare's issue
Date of event :	August 26, 2011
Aim of the Event :	Presentations are one of the managerial skills which a student must acquire. In fact, presentation helps the students to overcome the initial fear of facing people confidently. Presentation also improves body language and eye contact. When students are required to give presentation, they participate more in the discussion and this increases the interaction among students and their success rate. Considering this, presentation on current topics was given to students to enhance their knowledge and to improve their body language.
Event Report in brief:	Four groups were formed and they gave presentation on the following topics. 1) Future of retail sector in India India is the 3rd largest market in Asia behind Japan and China. India covers 3% of world's retail sector. The biggest player in India is Pantaloon. Pantaloon's total group sales are about equal to that of

Wal-Mart Super Centers annual revenues. The other players are Future group, Reliance, Bharti, Tata Tesco etc. Small players in retail sector are Parshvnath, Vishal Mega Mart, Shopper's Stop etc.

India is dominated by food and grocery which contributes more than 65% of retail market.

Global players are planning entry in India. There are opportunities in rural areas as Indian Retail Industry is growing at a rate of 5-6% p.a.

2) 'Buy or sell' which one is recommended for today's trade

Trade is the transfer of ownership of goods and services from one person to another. The original form of trade was barter, the direct exchange of goods and services.

Modern traders negotiate through a medium of exchange, such as money. As a result, buying can be separated from selling.

Now the question arises, which one is recommended 'buy or sell'?

The vast majority of investment advice is towards buying.

It's the buying of shares that begins the entire investment process.

Buying at the right price is very important and selling at the right price guarantees the actual profit. Buy low and sell high is the ultimate guide to successful stock investing.

3) Issue of land acquisition in Noida

The government is expressing concern over investors losing their money due to a court order that said land in Greater NOIDA should be returned to farmers as they had not got due compensation but maintained it could not intervene as land is a state subject.

Many farmers protested and asked for the increased compensation.

Express way projects are under dark now. So if farmers would be stick on there demands then future of Noida express way projects are going to stuck. Thousands of crores heve already been invested and lacks of buyers are stuck as they have invested their hard earned money.

Lets hope if we all can get out of the problem.

4) Role of government in Anna Hazare's issue

Kisan Baburao Hazare popularly known as Anna Hazare is an Indian social activist who is especially recognised for the Indian movement against corruption and his contribution to the development and structuring of Ralegan Siddhi, a village in Parner Taluka of Ahmednagar district, Maharashtra, India. Hazare started a hunger strike to exert pressure on the Indian government to enact a strict anti-corruption law as envisaged in the Jan Lokpal Bill, to deal with corruption in public offices. The fast led to nation-wide protests in support of Anna.

After a fast by veteran social activist Anna Hazare and widespread protest by citizens across India the Government of India constituted a 10-member Joint Committee of ministers and civil society activists to draft an effective Jan Lokpal Bill.

This session created awareness amongst the students and also improved their presentation skills.
