

“Communal Harmony Week: A Step Towards CSR”

Topic :	Communal Harmony week ,organized by Social Club, RDIAS
Date of event :	January 20 –January 27, 2012
Aim of the Event :	India is one of the biggest democracies in the world and it carries with itself people from diverse religions, caste, creed and dialects. Yet, we are the epitome of togetherness and solidarity. The young generation is much aware and responsible, yet we felt that like fundamentals of a subject, certain things do no harm even if repeated often. Hence, this event was organized with the aim of bringing everyone closer to the eternal truth of “unity in diversity”.
Event Report in brief :	All students of MBA, MCA and BBA participated in the event with full enthusiasm. Events like article writing with the theme: 'Role of education in promoting communal harmony', poster making and pictorial slogans were organized. Students came up with interesting slogans, for example “Play the game without surname!” “Rang birange phoolon se jis tarah se upavan banta hai, dharmon-jaatiyon ke sangam se apna Bharat banata hai.” This event was important because it was celebrated in the week of India’s 63rd Republic Day; this was our way of displaying our fondness and love for our nation-India.
